Discover Elba island and Tuscan Archipelago

From our Scarlino Marina it is easy to reach the 7 islands that make up the Tuscan archipelago

Scarlino, located in the province of Grosseto, is a delightful medieval village nestled on Mount Alma (250 meters above sea level), characterized by alleys and streets rich in history. The village also boasts a modern marina (the harbor was already used during the Roman era) equipped with all comforts and services: clubs, beauty farms, shopping galleries, seaside restaurants, and splendid beaches such as Cala Violina, considered one of the most beautiful in Maremma

ISLAND OF ELBA AND THE TUSCAN ARCHIPELAGO

The largest island in the Archipelago is Elba, only 10 miles from the Italian shores, followed by Giglio Island and Capraia, famous for its rugged cliffs and isolated beaches. In order of size, they are followed by Montecristo Island, Pianosa Island, Gorgona (the northernmost) and Giannutri (the southernmost and crescent-shaped). The seven islands, along with the rocks and reefs, together form the largest protected marine park in Europe, a true sanctuary for rare birds, dolphins and whales.
