DISCOVER LA MADDALENA AND SARDINIA'S EASTERN COAST

SUGGESTED ROUTES

Marina di Cannigione, located within the Gulf of Arzachena (province of Sassari), is located in an area protected from all winds, near a splendid village on the sea, at the gates of the La Maddalena Archipelago.

From here it is possible to reach the most beautiful places of the La Maddalena Archipelago and Southern Corsica in just a few hours of navigation.

Cannigione and the Costa Smeralda

Our marina in Cannigione is within the so-called "Costa Smeralda": a splendid coastal area located in the north-east of Sardinia, famous for its white sand beaches and crystal clear waters which make it a very popular tourist destination.

The Costa Smeralda was created in the 1960s by a group of international investors, including Prince Aga Khan, who wanted to create an exclusive place for their wealthy friends. Today, the area has become one of the most luxurious and glam beach destinations in the Mediterranean, attracting many visitors every year thanks to its haute cuisine restaurants, trendy bars and the unrivaled beauty of its landscapes.

La Maddalena archipelago

From the Marina di Cannigione it is possible to reach the National Park and the Marine Reserve of the La Maddalena archipelago in just a few hours of navigation, famous for their beauty and uncontaminated nature and, renowned throughout the world, for their beaches, clarity and transparency, of their waters, which are reminiscent of the Caribbean ones.

Here are some unmissable places to visit during your sailing adventure.

Spiaggia Rosa di Budelli: accessible only by sea, this beach owes its name to the characteristic color of the sand, a pale pink due to the grains of coral. An enchanting place to stop, swim in the transparent waters and admire the unique landscape.

Spargi archipelago: sailing towards the island of Spargi, stop in the bay of Cala Corsara. This secluded spot is surrounded by towering cliffs and offers a peaceful anchorage. Snorkeling and diving are unmissable here, thanks to the wealth of marine life that populates its seabed.

Caprera Island: explore the famous Cala Coticcio, also known as "Tahiti". This hidden bay is surrounded by granite rocks and offers turquoise waters ideal for swimming. A magical place where you can enjoy a peaceful day on the boat and relax on the white sand beach.

La Maddalena: the historic center of the city offers a pleasant walk through cobbled streets, shops and restaurants. From the port, you can organize excursions to discover the other treasures of the archipelago.

Eastern Sardinia

The eastern coast of Sardinia is perfect for those looking for paradisiacal and wild beaches. Here in the east of the island, especially in the Gulf of Orosei, there are many of the beaches considered among the most beautiful in all of Europe such as Cala Goloritzé, Cala Mariolu, Cala Sisine and Cala Luna. A sailing holiday, sailing from Cannigione, allows you to visit not only golden beaches, but also enchanting coves with cliffs overlooking the sea.
