Cannigione and the Costa Smeralda

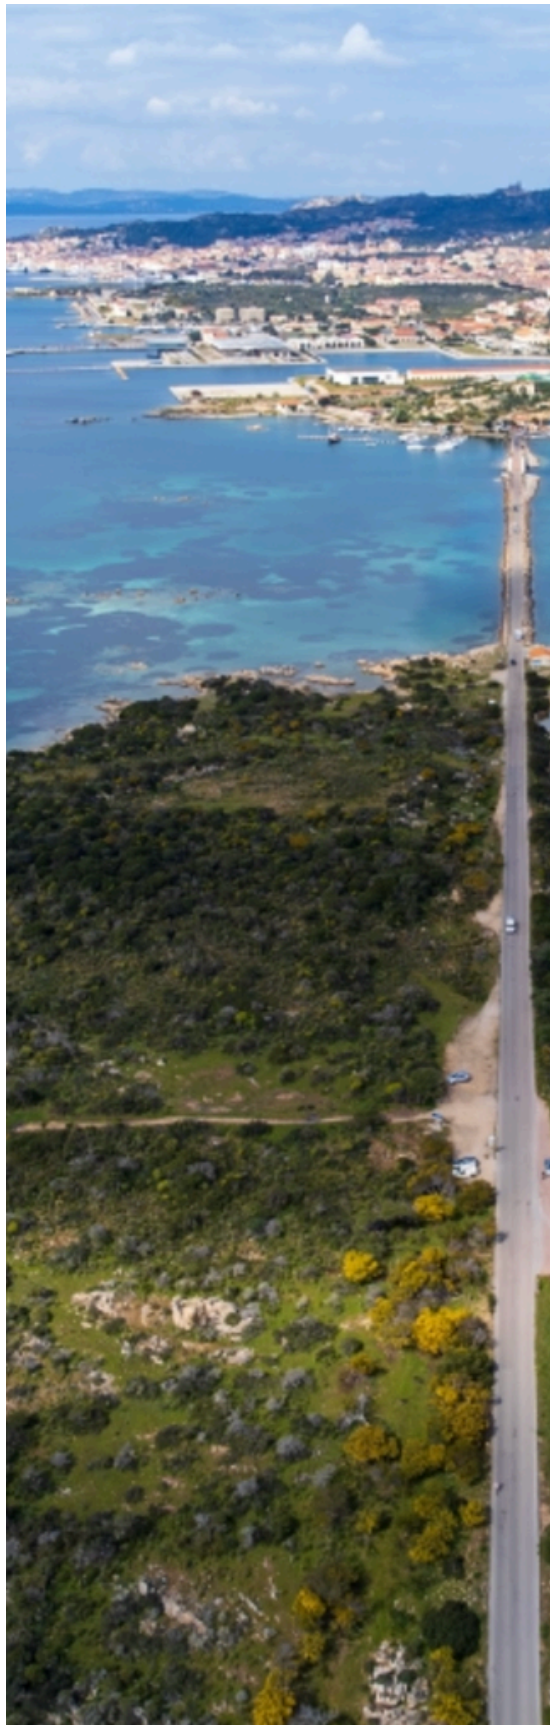

Our Cannigione marina is within the so-called “Costa Smeralda”: a splendid coastal area located in the north-east of Sardinia, famous for its white sandy beaches and crystal clear waters that make it a very popular tourist destination.

Costa Smeralda was created in the 1960s by a group of international investors, including Prince Aga Khan, who wanted to create an exclusive place for their wealthy friends. Today, the area has become one of the most luxurious and glamorous beach destinations in the Mediterranean, attracting many visitors each year thanks to its fine dining restaurants, trendy bars and the unparalleled beauty of its landscapes.

Eastern Sardinia

The eastern coast of Sardinia is perfect for those looking for wild and paradisiacal beaches. Here in the east of the island, especially in the Gulf of Orosei, there are many of the beaches considered among the most beautiful in all of Europe such as Cala Goloritzé, Cala Mariolu, Cala Sisine and Cala Luna. A sailing holiday, setting sail from Cannigione, allows you to visit not only golden beaches, but also enchanting coves with cliffs overlooking the sea.

Archipelago of La Maddalena

From Marina di Cannigione it is possible to reach in a few hours of navigation the National Park and Marine Reserve of the archipelago of La Maddalena, famous for their beauty and uncontaminated nature and, renowned throughout the world, for the beaches, the clarity and transparency of their waters, which recall those of the Caribbean.

Here are some must-see places to visit during your sailing adventure.

Spiaggia Rosa di Budelli: accessible only by sea, this beach owes its name to the characteristic color of the sand, a pale pink due to the grains of coral. An enchanting place to stop, swim in the transparent waters and admire the unique landscape.

Spargi Archipelago: Sailing towards the island of Spargi, stop at the bay of Cala Corsara. This isolated corner is surrounded by imposing cliffs and offers a quiet anchorage. Snorkeling and diving are a must here, thanks to the rich marine life that populates its seabed.

Caprera Island: Explore the famous Cala Coticcio, also known as "Tahiti".

This hidden bay is surrounded by granite rocks and offers turquoise waters ideal for swimming. A magical place where you can enjoy a quiet day on a boat and relax on the white sand beach.

La Maddalena: the historic center of the city offers a pleasant walk through cobbled streets, shops and restaurants. From the port, you can organize excursions to discover the other treasures of the archipelago.
